

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, June 21. 1707.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 24.

Venice, June 10.

ON Monday last the 7th Instant, Signior Girolomo Justiniani, new Procurator of St. Mark, made his publick Entry with great Solemnity, and took his Place in the Senate according to Custom: And returning to his own Palace gave a great Entertainment to those who had accompanied him. The Duke of Mantua is set out from hence for Padua to be present at the Celebration of the Feast of St. Anthony, and take the Diversion of the Fair which is held there 15 Days. Several Persons accus'd of Quietism are brought hither from Brescia. They write from that City, that the Proveditore Delfino was going to visit the Frontier Places and the Magazines in them; that he has caus'd a very severe Placard to be publish'd against Deserters; and that General Visconti was set out from Brescia on his Journey to the Army under Prince Eugene in Piemont.

Letters from Loretto of the 4th of this Month, give an Account, that the Generals Taun, Pate, and Vaubonne, arriv'd there the 2d, accompanied by a good Number of their Officers on Horseback; that the Governour went out to meet and compliment them, and conducted them into the Church of our Lady's House; that they were receiv'd there by the Choir, and treated with great Magnificence in the Bishop's Palace; that afterwards they were shewn the Treasury; and that the 3d having perform'd their Devotions and din'd in the said Palace, they went to Montechio to joyn their Army, being conducted part of their Way by the Governour of Loretto, &c. And that they were to march from Montechio to San Severino the 5th, thence to proceed for Naples by the Road to Rome.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated June 25.

Dresden, June 19. King Augustus is at present at Leipzig, and is very urgent with the King of Sweden to defer no longer to cause his Troops to march out of Saxony: In the mean time 'tis said the Swedes, who at present are furnish'd only with Provisions for Men and Horses, are not content with that, but pretend to Contributions besides in Money for the current Month. 'Twas thought within these few Days, that they were preparing in good earnest to march out of the Country, because they distributed Cloaths to the Regiments, and talk'd of laying a Bridge at Pema a Mile from hence: And 'tis now reported they are to march in 3 Columns to Torgau in Misnia and there pass the River Elbe; but there is no certainty what they will do, as long as the Imperial and Swedish Courts are at Variance. We hear many of the Inhabitants of Bohemia and Silesia have hid or sent out of the Country their best Effects. The Regiments of Horse and Foot that are taken into the Pay of the Queen of Great-Britain and the States General of the United Provinces of the Netherlands, having been cloath'd, arm'd, and muster'd, have been ready to march this Fortnight, and wait for Orders.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated June 21.

Cologne, June 17. At 10 a Clock last Night, a Party of French came before one of our Gates, would have pass'd for Palatine Troops sent to reinforce our Garrison, and design'd under that Pretence to get into the City; but it being discover'd from the Ramparts that there were other Forces lurking at a Distance in the Corn-Fields, two Cannon were fir'd, whereupon the Enemy finding themselves discover'd retir'd.

Stockholm, June 8. Three of our Burghers have been taken up and imprison'd, for contracting with the Prince of Melit and other Mulcovite Prisoners, to help them to make their Escape, for a certain Sum of Money, of which they had receiv'd Part. 'Tis thought they will be punish'd severely: In the mean time those Mulcovite Prisoners are kept under a Guard, and are not allow'd the Liberty they had formerly of coming abroad for Air sometimes. Great Rejoycings are made by several Families here, upon the Arrival of an Order from the King, importing, that all those who have Places of Profit in the Kingdom, and who during the War have been allow'd but half their Salaries, shall for the future be paid the whole. Monsieur Campredon, formerly Page to Monsieur de Bonrepos, and who has resided here 6 Years in Quality of Secretary to Monsieur de Bonacq, has now the Character of Resident of France with an Allowance of 4000 Crowns a Year. Monsieur de de Bonacq is for the future to reside at the Court of King Stanislaus.
